WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME. SOCIETY HONORS THE DUKE.

pretty wedding took place at high noon yesterday in Trinity chapel in West Twenty-fifth-st., near Broadway, when Mrs. Lewis Ashman, widow of John J. Ashman, was married to Charles Stott Oakley, of this city. Tall palms and bunches of white and pink pring flowers filled the chancel and covered the alter before which the Rev. Dr. William H. Vibbert, the rector of the church, performed the marriage cere sony. The bride was escorted up the central sisle and given away by her brother-in-law, E. H. Cook. and given away to she was attired in a rich gown of rose pink sattu-made in the 1830 style, with bulloon sleeves and a deep fall of point lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white orchids. w either bridesmaids or maid of honor. The bridegroom's brother, Walter G. Berlin, was best man. The wedding breakfast and reception followed at the home of Mr. Cook, No. 13 East Sixty-fourth-st. Only clatives and a small number of intimate friends were Among the guests at the church and house ere Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brown, Mr. and Mrs William Spence, Mr. and Mrs. G. Conover, Mr. and Mrs W. G. Berlin, Mrs. Charles Buckhalter, William H. Oakley, J. F. Chatteller and Mrs. Sarah Broadhead. Oakley will take his bride South, and in a few seeks, when they return, will occupy their rew home

Miss Milma Popper, daughter of Edward Poppe of No. 44 East Seventy-sixth-st., was married last evening at 6 o'clock to George M. Stern. eremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Silter man, the assistant at the Temple Emanu-El, in the small ballroom at Sherry's, Fifth-ave, and Thirtyseventh-st. The tride wore a rich Empire gown of white satin elaborately trimmed with Duchess point face and a white silk tulle well fastened with natural orange blossoms. She wore no jewels. Her ister. Miss Minnie Popper, wearing a pretty dresof pink satin trimmed with white silk muslin of same shade embroidered with sliver, was the maid of honor. There were no bridesmaids, Albert Stern attended his brother as best man.

The ushers were William Rosenfeld, Sidney Levy, lames Loeb, David Stern, brother of the bridegroom; Lewis Heinsheimer, Martin Goodkind, Morits Loch Joseph Heinedinger, De Witt Cohen and Otto Lowengard. After the ceremony there was a reception, which was followed by a dinner served in the pink room, and a ball. Mr. and Mrs. Stern will spend their honeymoon in Washington and the south. They

At about 6:30 o'clock last evening Miss Marion Mayer was married to Jackson Goldman, in the drawing-room of her father's home, No. 82 East Fifty-sixth-st. The Rev. Dr. Gustav Gottheil. the Temple Emanu-El, officiated. Two little girls, Edner Mayer, sister of the bride, and Miss Jennie Hennan, were the bridesmaids. They were attired anke in picturesque costumes of white silk muslin, richly embroilered and trimmed with lace. The bridal gown was of every white satin handsomely trimmed with point lace and a vell of the same affixed to the conflure with several small diamondheaded pins and a coronet of orange blossoms redding dinner, served by Mazzetti, at small tables, followed. Later in the evening there was dancing.

Miss Alice Seaver Andrews, the only daughter of George L. Andrews, superintendent of the National Steamship Line, was married at 2 o'clock on Tues-day afternoon in the Jane Street Methodist Episcopal Church to George Smith Snyder, of Arlington. ony, which was performed by the Rev. Stephen ii. Merritt, assisted by the paster of the church, the 1 loose bunch of American Beauty roses. Alfred C. Archibald Frazze, were ushes. A large reception hung a silken banner, bearing the Duke's coat of jetted Mrs. E. L. Baylies were a handsome gown of gray velvet shat with violat the Andrews, the bride's brother, was best man. Henry 48 Jane-st. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Higgs, Mr. and Mrs. John Bogert, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. George O. ews, Mrs. Stephen H. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. James Bennitt, Mr. and Mrs. William Snyde, Miss Anna Bennitt and Harry Ferris. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder have gone to Saratoga for a week and before they return make their home with the bride's father they will

The wedding of Miss Elise Huntington, taughter of Charles K. Huntington, of No. 49 East Trentleth-st., to Leopold Francke, will take place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in Calvary Church, in Fourthave. The Rev. Dr. Henry Y. Satterlee, the rector, wil officiate Pedro F. Francke, will attend the bridgroom as Miss Marie Huntington, siste of the best man. bride, will be the maid of honor. The bidesmaids will be Miss Dulsy Hamilton, Miss Clarise Living storr. Miss Rosalie Francke and and Miss Madeline satterlee. Following the ceremony there wil be a reception at the home of the bride's parents Miss Antoinette Gulon, the youngest dauliter of Clement Guion, of this city, was married on hesday, at high noon, in Christ Church, at Warwick, N. Y. to Horace Dickinson Nugent, British Consul fo Texas and New-Mexicco. The Rev. Thomas McKee trown, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St Mary parish, performed the ceremony. The bride was even away by her brother, George G. Guion, She veyed to Warwick by special car attached to he 9:30 e'clock express. The music during the wedding cere mony was furnished by the Hungarian band. A wedding breakfast, to which only the family and a fex with ribbons. timate friends were invited, followed at the Grange tuger Loaf, the home of the bride's mother.

THE ANNUAL YALE CONCERT.

The annual concert of the Yale Glee and Banjo Club. for the benefit of the Yale Boat Club, occur to-morrow evening at the Madison Square Garden Hall. The graduates of the university and their families always take a hearty interest in this concert, which has come to be an important social incident. A large attendance is now assured, but there are still desirable seats left, which may be secured at the box office between 9 a. m. and 6 p. in. to-day and to-morrow. The club is said to be specially proficient this year, and an agreeable contert, with an opportunity for the renewal of old associations, will reward all who are present.

CARL MARWIG'S CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL.

A children's carnival, under the direction of Carl Marwig, w'll be given at the Lenox Lyceum on Monday evening. There will be a long and excellent programme, including National dances, fairy pageants, Programme, including National dances, tary pageants.

Processions and tableaus. Mr. Marwig has in previous Jears managed many of these carnivals with great saccess, which will no doubt be repeated in the

A BIG RECEPTION AT THE WALDORF.

WELL-KNOWN MEN AND WOMEN ON THE COM-MITTEE AND AMONG THE GUESTS.

that Society and the American Geographical Society united in giving a brilliant reception at the Walder yesterday afternoon for the Duke and Duchess of Veragua and their party. It was carried out on a magnificent scale, without littch or accident, and with no more friction than was necessarily incidental to the crowd of 2,500 people or more who attended. The large believes at that they were obliged to sit down to send that they were obliged to sit down to send the reception ended. The Duke kept his post to the reception ended. The buke kept his post to the reception ended and po Its vicinity. The orchestra was stationed in the tired from the fripperies of modern life. The gather-balcony of the ballroom, and played spanish and ing was thus doubly creditable and did honor to the from popular operas.

Except in the cafe, which was changed for the into one. occasion into a buffet luncheon room, the decorations | The Duchess were a reception gown of sapphire were simple. Red roses and yellow tulips were used blue silk under black spanish lace. Her only orna ing, and the discomforts of waiting in the crowd outside were more than offset by the opportunity to make one's way through the rooms without crowding or nunecessary delay. The luncheon-room at times, however, was uncomfortably full.

The Duke and Duchess merely bowed to those who passed before them, shaking hands only with those who were and the property of the property o who were personally presented. The Duchess and her daughter, Donna Maria, received with characteriscal Society and the American Geographical Society great that they were eldiged to sit down before tended. The large ballroom at the left of the pressed by the gathering of elegant people who main entrance, together with the still larger cafe represented everything that is best in the metropolis. and conservatory, were beautifully decorated for the Not only was the gay and fashionable world out, escotasion, and through these, for nearly three hours, pecially the young element so much identified with the moved a constant stream of the most prominent fashionable pleasures of the winter, but also that people in the social and official life of New-York and staid and venerable circle which has years since re-American patriotic airs, together with selections guests and the occasion. It was almost as if all the afternoon receptions of the spring had been condensed in profusion to embody the national colors of Spain. | ment was a small brooch of diamonds. Her daughter's of thile was discarded, the colflure being dressed all kinds representing the places of the small wreath of orange blossoms, with a small wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Millie Snyder, sister of the bridgeroum, was the maid of honor. Her gown was the maid of honor. Her gown was the maid of honor, while the short of the carried them were yards of red and yellow ribbon. Above the wore a capace of black and mauve brecade. Mrs. William H. Draper black and mauve arms, and on either side the coats of arms of Fer dinand and Isabella and of Spain. The whole wa e Virgin. West Forty-fifth-st., this city, asisted the Rev. Dr. David T. Howell, the rector f the draped a canopy of red and yellow cloth. This piece of decoration attracted much attention and was greatly admired. Bunting and flowers were also use and the carried a shower bouquet of orange blosoms and filles of the valley, fringed with lace. There usually occupied by the cigar stand was a fairyland of white azalras and tulips, Spanish bayenet palms and long trailing moss. The four huflet tables were the legisland, and the ushers were Livingston Rutterford and E. F. Darrell. The invited guests very training most of the room. The research usually occupied by the cigar stand was a fairyland of white azalras and tulips, Spanish bayenet palms and long trailing moss. The four huflet tables were decorated with flowers and candles with colored shades. The "piece monte" of two tables supported by delphins sporting in candy water. Another piece on the central buffet consisted of two mandolins crossed, made from hams and decorated

THE DUKE OF VERAGUA.

The decorations in the reception room consisted of igst Loaf, the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Nugent will sail in a short time behind the ducal party. In the conservatory, to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Nugent will sail in a snot time behind the ducal party. In the conservatory, to for England, where Mrs. Nugent will be presented to the Queen at one of the May drawing rooms. They palms, Easter lilles, bay trees and boxwood trees, will return to New-York in the autumn, after 1 trip garlands of bay leaves being hung from the roof. on the Continent.

The passage between the reception and luncheon on the Continent.

Mass Mary Cecella sanford was married at 6 o'clock from was hung with red and vellow cloth. Hoograms to Michael Robert Seton Shanley at St. last evening to Michael Robert Seton Shanley at St. Patrick's Cathedral, in Newark. The bride is a Patrick's Cathedral, in Newark. The bride is a continent of learning to Michael B. Sectord of Clintop-ave.

DONNA MARIA DEL PILAR.

befe 4 o'clock those who were to assist the Duke ancDuchess in receiving took their places in the walter Rutherfurd's gown was of mauve satin, and she were a capate of black. The Marquise de Casa Argadin were black silk, elaborately jetted. Mrs. John C. Wilmerding was in black and yellow brocade. Mmc. De Barrill was in black satin brocade, elaborately jetted. Mrs. E. L. Baylles were a handsome gown of gray velvet shot with violet tints, and a close-fitting bonnet trimmed with violets. Mrs. Richard Irvin's gown was particularly beautiful. It was of mauve and silver gray changeable silk, with pink polka dets. Her small bonnet was of corresponding shades. s, the bride's brother, was best man. Henry Herman Irrion, Water May and William id Frazze, were ushes. A large reception in the santa marks of red and yellow flowers, azaleas, genestas, tulips and roses, over which was a model of the santa Maria in white and gold. In the centre was hung a silken banner, bearing the Doba's and the santa black satin brocade also was in black and yellow brocade. dots. Her small bonnet was of corresponding shades. about half an hour. The Duke took great interest in Her small bonnet was of corresponding shades.

James Kernochan wore an elegant gown of violet veivet with bonnet of lighter shade.

Austin Stevens was in pale blue, and her sister, Abbie Austin Stevens, in pink. Mrs. Karrick force, the control of the city, and expressed great surprise at the city, and expressed great surprise at the city, and expressed great surprise at the city. deep violet veivet with bonnet of lighter shade. Miss Austin Stevens was in pale blue, and her sister, Miss Abble Austin Stevens, in pink. Mrs. Karrick Riggs were a black brocade with a pinhead pattern of vellow and small bounet of black jet. Mrs. Fred- all sides. crick Tailmadge were a black and white striped satin. Mrs. Charles P. Daly was in black brocade, as was also Mrs. Charles A. Post. Mrs. James B. Townsend vore a reception gown of black crepe and satin.

Archbishop Corrigan, who was attended by his Joseph Drexel in dark blue brocade with black velvet Mrs. Henry Mills Day, Miss Day, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pierson, Mrs. James Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Tailer, Miss Luisita Leland, Miss Luly Grabam, Miss Tilly Fish, Mrs. Leon Matie, Miss Ellen Hee, Miss McGinnis, Miss Rogers, John Bigelow, General and Mrs. H. L. Burnett, Mrs. Westervelt, Miss Westervelt, Mme. Froelich, Miss Elizabeth Bradhurst, MARQUIS DE BARBOLIS.

ister; Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Henry, the Misses Noel, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Roosevelt, the Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany, General and Mrs. F. P. Earle, Mr. and Mrs E. R. Merritt, Mrs. Gilroy, wife of the Mayor, in black bended satin with puffed sleeves of mauve silk; Mrs. G. C. Boldt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kissam, Miss Kissam, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Adams, Miss S. Furniss, Mrs. William Rhinelander, the Marquis de Casa Argudin, Miss Clift, James M. Varnum, Philip Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dana, Miss Virginie Peobles, Miss Thompson, Captain Wiltse, U. S. Navy, and Mrs. Willise; J. Sarl Barclay, Jr., Mrs. O. S. Teall, Peter Marie, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wetmore, Howland Pell, Mrs. Eastman Johnson, Miss Ethel Johnson, the Misses Kean, General O. O. Howard, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Henry Clews, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oelrichs, Mrs. Alfred Edwards, Mrs. Edward Lees Coffey, Mrs. Henry de Coppett, Mrs. Herbert Ashmore, Miss Townsend, Mrs. C. L. Colby, Mrs. Jacob Wendell, Evert Jansen Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Isnac How, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marie, the Misses Marie, Mrs. Frederick Sheldon, Mrs. Paran Stevens, Mrs. Philip sands, the Misses Sands, Mrs. George E. Baker, Mrs. Earl Dodge, Miss Cameron, Miss Murphy, Miss Helene Murphy, Banger Clarkson, Dr. and Mrs. Kinnleutt, Mrs. William Fraser, Mrs. Edward Manice, E. Ran-golph Robinson, Mrs. Fleanor Robinson, Murat Halstead, Elisha Dyer, Miss Walker, Mrs. H. de B. Parsons, Mrs. Edwin Parsons, W. Hude Neilson, Eben Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lyman Collins, Mrs. Frederick Neilson, Mrs. C. G. de Garmendia, Mrs. Stuart Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Hooker Hamersley, Andrew Hamersley Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell, Miss El-le Mitchell, John Donoghne, Mrs. George de Forest, Miss Fellows, W. Ellord Gould, Mrs. J. F. de Navarro, Miss Howard, Rhinelander, Mrs. M. Augustus Field, Miss Field and McLeod Cameron.

The ushers were Henry Villard, John Austin naturally be expected to-night.

Stevens, John Austin Stevens, jr., Cornellus N. Billss, Henry W. Bibby, Ell-ha Dyer, Jr., Harry Van Cortlandt, George Bird, George B. Parsons, Davis Barnes, J. M. Ceballos, Louis I. Jones, De Forrest Manitee, Madison Grant, Arthur F. Schermerhorn, E. G. Schermerhorn, Engene Kelly, David S. Banks, S. Nicholson Kane, Islane Islam, Perry Bramwell, Heming Tuckerman, Captain Charles F. Roe, H. Chauncey, Jr., F. G. Langdon, Thomas Kelly and s. de Garmendin.

The following committees had charge of the reception:
Chamber of Commerce-Henry Villard, Seth Low,
Morris K. Jesup, John D. Rockefeller, Charles S. Fairchild, Horace Porter, Abram S. Hewitt, Cornellos N. Elliss, Oscar S. Straus, J. Seaver Page, Vernon H. Brown, Woodbury Langdon, John Bigelow, William E. Woodbury Langdon, John Bigriow, William Steinway, J. Edward Simmons, John Claffin, James W. Tappin, Carl Schurz, Charles S. Smith, Chaincey M. Depew, John S. Kennedy, J. Plerpont Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, Samuel D. Babcock, George Rutledge Gibson, John Austin Stevens, Louis Windmuller and Levi P. Morton. Historical Society-John A. King, Goldsborough Ban

Historical Society-John A. King, Goldsborough Ban-yer, Matthew Clarkson, Maturin L. Delafield, Edward F. De Lancey, Nicholas Fish, Frederic Gallatin, Charles Isham, William Jay, Fordham Morris, Philip Rhinelander, Isham, William Jay, Forman North, Painle Ramento, George L. Rives, William C. Schermerhorn, Henry S. Van Beuren and John A. Weeke.

Geographical Society-William Lane Booker, B. H. Bristow, Frederick J. De Peyster, Charles S. Fairchild, George W. Folsom, E. L. Godkin, William G. Hamilton, George P. Polsom, E. L. Godkin, William G. Hamilton, George P. Polson, Physical Review, President Physics Headley, Heary G. Marquant, Henry Parish, Philip Schuyler, Lispenard Stewart, C. C. Tiffany, George W. Vanderbilt and Esbert L. Viele

Outside the hotel a crowd gathered to see guests arrive and depart. The line of carriages extended beyond Fortieth at. In Fifth-ave. A squad of police kept the streets clear and preserved order.

MRS. EUGENE RELLY RECEIVES THE PARTY The Duke and Duchess of Veragua honored Mrs. Eugene Kelly, of No. 33 West Fifty-first-st., with a visit on Tuesday afternoon. They were accompanied by Con-mander and Mrs. Dickins and the Marquis of Villobat Cust Argudin and T. H. Kelly.

Although the Duke of Veragus and his brother, the Marquis de Barboles, were visitors in the business part of the city yesterday, few of the men downlown knew anything about their presence. The Duke and his party went to the financial centre of the city by the Sixihave, elevated road, and all the movements of the party

PLANS FOR THE REST OF THE WEEK. This afternoon Charles I'. Gates, brother of Mrs. Dickcretary, was one of the first to be presented. He for a drive on his coach. At 9 p. m. they will attend On Saturday afternoon the ducal party starts for Wash-

ALDERMEN ARE GRUMBLING.

Mary of the Wigwam Aldermen are still "worked upon them by the Mayor's Committee of One Hundred, which has the job of spending the city's ₹50,000 in naval officers who come here for the Columbian Clab in Fine st. Credentials of new societies were naval officers. The Aldermen were not asked to appoint received from New-Hampshire and Rhode Island, and and help disburse the funds, and they are inclined to raise hob. The only trouble is that they do not and New-Hampshire, but were not acted upon, as it

After the reception at the Waldorf last night the Duke de Verragua and his brother went to the Cercule Colon-Cervantes in East Nineteenthest, where all the well-known Spaniards in the city had gathered to meet them. At a recent neeting of this club the Duke was made its honorary president, and last night he was formally told of his honorary title. A parchment roll on which was engraved the action of the club was given to him. The presentation was made by the president, Juan N. Navarro. Some of those who were present were Senor Tapete, Antonio Cuyas Armengol, Senor Smithers, Jose Beinto Aristides Martiner, Pedro V. Florez, Enrique Mesa, S. Uallet Prevost, Dr. Sabater, Juan Quintard, Carlos Rold, J. G. Garcia, Edward Kemp and Jose E. O'Kelly,

HELPING MOTHERS AND BABIES.

There trod the boards last evening at the Berkeley Lyceum a company of actresses and actors whose names are not advertised in the dramatic papers, and whose trunks of press elippings are still light. There were charming girls and handsome young men in the cast of "Truestine" which was given last evening for the melt of the Mothers and Bables' Hospital. They are directed by Nelson Wheateroft, and gave a creditable performance of the drama, which is adapted from the French of Ennery and Clemand. There was a large audience present, and it was not chary in bestowing its applianse. The performance was given by Miss Lawrence's company of players, assisted by Paul Wiailard, Evert Jansen Wendell and the Columbia College Gico Club. The cast was as follows: There trod the boards last evening at the Berkeley

Count d'Avrigny Henry Rediow
Eleonore d'Avrigny Evert Janen Wendell
Juine de Moreas Seweit Tappan Tyng
Raptiste Frankin Mott Warner
Valertine de Quercy Miss Edith Gale
Ericettine Miss Rita Lawrence
Annette Marguerite Miss Moore The operetta "Le Mariage aux Lanternes" was given

The operatia "Le Mariago aux Lanternes" was given the close of the piax. Performances will be repeated to such to morrow might and Satorday. Some of the potronesses of the entertainment are Mrs. Chaunes' M. Dep w. Mrs. Roger A. Fryn. Mrs. J. Herpont Morgan, Mrs. Hart Isman, Mrs. W. S. Katasford, Mrs. E. Hartiman, Mrs. Ryce Gray, Mrs. John Edits Roosevelt and Mrs. D. B. St. John Roosa.

MR. SALVINI IN " THE THREE GUARDSMEN."

An agreeable revival of "The Three Guardsmen" was accomplished at the Manhattan Opera House last night, with Alexander Salvini as Phillippe d'Artagnan. A large recition-room where in a few moments, they were joid by the Ducal party, which passed from the joid by the Ducal party, which passed from the sta apartments in procession led by the Duchess Sta apartments in procession led by the Duchess of the arm of Henry Villard, of 'eragua leaning on the arm of Henry Villard, of 'eragua leaning on the arm of Henry Villard, of 'eragua leaning on the arm of Henry Villard, of 'eragua leaning on the arm of Henry Villard, of 'eragua leaning on the arm of the bulke's party, walked with mebers of the reception committee, and took their mebers of the reception-room, past entire, passing through the reception-room past entire, passing through the reception-room, past entire, passing through the reception-room, and thence thelucal party, into the luncheon-room, and thence the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther to e conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservation, and there are also value and the conservatory and out at the door near Fifther and the conservation, and the conservation and the

LOYAL TO THE BRAVE MINUTE MEN.

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION HONOR THEIR MEMORY.

The Daughters of the Revolution celebrated, in the Governor's Room of the City Hall, yesterday, the 118th anniversary of the battle of Lexington, where the shot was fired which was heard around the world." Some of the Daughters were not much pleased when they arrived at the City Hall to find that only one flag had been displayed on the building to companyone.

to commemorate the day. The Governor's Room was decorated with the blue and buf colors of the Revolution, mingled with the American, Spanish and Italian flags, which remained from the reception of the Duke of Veragua the day before. Mrs. E. P. Steers, president of the society, presided at the meeting. The celebration opened with the three-part song "To Thee, Oh Country," by a semi-chorus of the Brooklyn Cecilian, Senior Division, Albert 5, Cuswell, director. The Rev. Dr. George R. Van De Water, chaplain general of the society, offered prayer and made an address. "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung, and Charles W. Star Spangled Banner' was sung, and Charles.

Dayton enlogized the "American Women of '76."

Exclude F. G. Gedney was expected to deliver the Exclude F. G. Gedney was expected to deliver the of him. The $25,000 is still in Mr. Newman's possession, uncalled for. cratton on this subject, but as he was prevented from attending. Mr. Dayton took his place. The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Hall, rector of Holy Trinity Charch, Brooklyn, chaplein of the Long Island Chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution, made a historical address. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Van De Water.

Among those present were Mrs. Leroy S. Smith Mrs. Louise F. Davis, Mrs. Louise F. Rowe, Miss Cataccine J. C. Carville Mrs. D. Phoenix Ingraham, Mrs. Chauncey S. Truax, Mrs. Mary C. Martin Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tracey Robinson, Miss Adeline W. Torey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Curtis and Miss Cartis, Mrs. Louis J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Townsend, of Sing Sing, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Carr, Mrs. Charles A. O'Rourke, Mrs. J. W. French, Mrs. Slade and Miss Slade, Mrs. George Inness, Mrs. William Torrey Baird, Miss Sara King Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beam, Mrs. Lyman Abbott and Miss Ingraham, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ketchum and Miss Ketchum, Mrs. Marion Mrs. Edgar Ketchum and Miss Ketchum, Mrs. Marion
B. Ladin, Mrs. William R. Pitt, Mrs. S. C. Hundson,
Mrs. E. P. Hamilton, Jindge Truax, Judge Ingraham,
General James M. Varnum, Mrs. A. C. Dayton, Mrs.
J. Warren Rogers, of Scarsboroug's, N. Y.: Mrs.
J. Warren Rogers, of Scarsboroug's, N. Y.: Mrs.
Smith Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. McGowan, IrMrs. Abraham Steers, Captain Charles F. Roe, Ol Troop A, and Mrs. Roe; General and Mrs. Horatio C. King, Miss Mary A Kent, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Charles L. Allen, of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stotte, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hood Wright, Mrs. Bradley L. Eaton and Mrs. J. V. B. Thayer.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. The parlors of Sherry's were crowded to overflowing in the afternoon, at the meeting of the New-York City Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to celebrate the anniversary of the battle of Lexington. It was one of the most elaborate affairs ever given by the Daughters of the American Revolution. The officers of the chapter are: Regent. Mrs. R. Ogden Doremus; secretary, Mrs. Donald McLean; treasurer, Miss Van Buren Vanderpoel; registrar, Mrs. Clarence Fostley.

Mrs. Doremus read an interesting article to the chapter, and the Rev. Dr. Terry, chaptain, delivered a patriotic address. Mrs. Donald McLean read a paper on "Wives of Four Famous Men of the Revo-Mrs. Dillen Baugh recited a poem. Re freshments were served after the exercises. Among those present were Mrs. Ward McAllister, Mrs. J. Crossman, Marchise Lanco, Mme. Balthacci, Mrs. Terry. Miss Ingraham, Miss Forsyth, Miss Douglas, a descendant of a signer of the Constitution; Mrs. John Russell Young, Mrs. Chaffee, Mrs. Ran-delk, Mrs. Earle, Mrs. Van Euren Vanderpoel and Mrs. Charence Postley. Joseph Maria, Hamilton W. Tompkins, of the Sons of the Revolution, and Will-lam McDowell, of the sons of the American Revolution, were also present.

THE CELEBRATION IN LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Mass., April 19.-The citizens of this historic town celebrated to day the 118th anniversary of the firing of the "shot heard round the world." The old town was in gala dress; flags floated cheerly in the fresh breeze from every point of historic interest. The celebration began last night with the anniversary ball, which was the most brilliant ever given in the At 2:30 o'clock a. m. the people were aroused by the trumpet blasts of "Paul Revere," impersonated by Bert Lowe, of Lexington, who rode over the old route taken by the coppersmith in 1775. About 6 a. m. there was a procession. At 8:30 a. m. a body, consisting of leading citizens of Lexington ine, wife of Commander Dickins, the honorary excert of uniformed in the old continentals, met a large repthe Duke of Veregua, will take the Duke and his pirty resentation of the Massachusetts Bicycle Club at the Arlington line and escorted them to Lexington common. At 10:30 a, m, a children's entertalnment a reception given for them by Mrs. Firms average mon. At 10.50 a. mon. At an address by Alfred S. line, of Worcester; a poby Henry O'Meara, of Boston, and singing by children of the public schools. A reception by the Lexington Historical Society closed the celebration this evening.

OFFICERS OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION. The triengial meeting of the Sons of the Revoluentertaining the Duke of Veragua and the foreign tion was held yesterday afternoon in the Down Town a committee to co-operate with the Mayor's committee were accepted. Applications for membership were was found that a correction in the form of the papers the grambling. "I den't see what they have to complain of," he replied. "They have had theets to the ball, and a steamer has been placed at their disposal for the naval review. What more do they want! If some chaps I know had the earth, they would be necessary. The following officers for the next three years were elected: General President, John Lee Carroll, of Maryland; general vice-president, John screven, of Georgia, general vice-president, John Screven, of Georgia, general secretary, James M. Montgomery, of New York; assistant general secretary. would be necessary. The following officers for the some chaps I know had the earth they would not be satisfied.
SPANIARDS GIVE THE DUKE A NEW TITLE.

Mannes M. Montgomery, of New York, assistant general secretary, Stephen Salisbury, of Maine; historian, Licutenant T. B. M. Mason, District of Columbia; registrar, John W. Jordan, of Pennsylvania, The total membership of the societies as reported yesterday is 2,450.

MEN NURSES READY FOR THEIR WORK.

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF THE TRAINING SCHOOL-REPORTS AND SPEAKERS.

The graduating exercises of the Training School for Male Nurses were held last evening at its building in the Bellevue Hospital grounds. Twenty-seven young men reserved diplomas as trained nurses, certifying that they had completed the required twa years' course. Friends of the graduates and of the institution filled the little assembly 100m of the limiting in Page Tagenty-School. sembly from of the building in East Twenty-sixth-st.

J. G. McCullough, of the Fourd of Managers, presched.

A short report of the work of the institution was read by Oguen Mills, the secretary of the board. Dr. Herman N. Biggs, of Believue Hospital, made the address to the graduating class, emphasizing the importance of their calling, and their exceptional chances for the accomplishment of good. H. H. Potter, the president of the Board of Charities and Correction, congratulated the members of the class in their choice of work, and attered a picasant wish for their success. Mr. Mctuilough then distributed the claborately engrossed diplomas, and in closing spoke in praise of the physicians in the Board of Managers, and of those in charge of the institution, especially of Mrs. Willard, the superintendent.

The training school was founded by D. O. Mills, and its handsome new building was opened for the reception of Biggs, of Believue Hospital, made the address to the ceived be extended till May 1. The inventors, to anticipation of this action, did not appear with their guns, as usual holding out till the last moment. The board then adjourned until that date. This reopens the whole case, as all the cans that have been

THE MAGAZINE GUN TESTING AT SPRINGFIELD.

WILLIAM NEILSON M'VICKAR FOR BISHOP.

Philadelphia, April 19.-A dispatch from Boston says William Netlson McVickar, of Holy Trinity Church, this city, has been unanimously agreed apon by the Broad Church Conference of Episcopalisus as their candidate for Bishop of Massuchusetts to succeed the late Phillips Brooks. When asked last evening if he would accept the candidacy, Dr. Mc-Vickar said: "I can't say. This is the first intimation I have had that my name was seriously considered for the position, and the suddenness of the amountement aimest overwhelms me."

AN AKRON CAPITALIST MISSING.

Chicago, April 19.-Lyman L. Lamb, a capitalist from Akron, Ohio, is missing. The fact was reported to the police to-day. Lamb came here to negotiate with Jacob Newman, a lawyer, for some real estate north of the city. He drew $25,000 out of a bank on Monday, and gave the money to Newman in a satchel in the street. Lamb was expected to go direct to Newman's office, a few steps distant, after getting

"Admiral"

Does not pull and poison the lips, nor discolor the teeth Tuts eignrette is not made by the trust

The pleasant coating of Beecham's Pills completely

BOORAEM-HEWSON-On Wednesday, April 19th, at St. Mark's Church, Philidelphia, by the Rev. A. Mor-thner, Mary Cox, daughter of the late Doctor Annell Hewson, to Rudolph Morrell Booraem. BREWSTER-PARKS-At St. Thomas's Church, New-York City, on Wednesday, April 19th 1893, by the Rev. John W. Brown, D. D. rector, Isabel Erskine, daughter of Robert H. Parks, to Samuel Dwight Brewster.

to Charles Stott Gasley.

RAMSEY-SPRING On Wednesday, April 19th, at All Souls' Church, by Rev. Theodore C. Williams, Margaret Gulon Spring, daughter of Freston Brady Spring, to Harielgh, Marylind, to Robert Robert Ramsey, of Cin-chinati.

SNYDER-ANDREWS-On Tuesday, April 18th, at the Jame Street Methodist Episcopal Church, by the Rev.
Stephen M. Merritt, assisted by Rev. Dr. Strauton, Alice Seaver Andrews, daughter of tree. L. Andrews, to Geo.
S. Snyder, of Arlington, N. J.

S. Snyder, of Arlington, N. J.

SPRAGUE-WELLS-On Tuesday, April 18th, at the residence of bride's father, at Englewood, N. J., Mary P. Wells to Edwin C. Sprague, of New-York, TOMPSON-STEVENS-On Monday, April 17, 1808, at the residence of the bride's father, 596 Monros-st.,

Brooklyn, by the Rev. Robt. J. Kent, Grace W., only daugnter of G. A. and N. M. Stevens, to Frederick W. Tompson, of Newark, N. J.

BAKER-Oil Tuesday, April 18, 1893, Olive Bell, widow of James L. Baker, in her 80th year.
Services at the residence of her dagather. Mrs. C. E. Lichtenhein, 25 West 123d-st., on Thursday, at 5 p. m. Interment at Chicago.

BUCHANAN-On Tuesday, April 18th, 1893. Elizabeth Curzon, widow of Robert Stewart Buchanan, csq., and daughter of the late William Henry Jephson csq. Funeral services at her late residence, 24 East 33d-st., Thursday afternoon, April 20th, at 5 o'clock.

COLLIER-Eithe, councast daughter of C. C. and M. J.

COLLIER-Effe, youngest daughter of C. C. and M. J. Funeral services at the Forty-third Street M. F. Church, 43d-st., cast of 8th-ave., Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, April 20th.
Interment private.

DOOLUTTLE-Suddenly, April 18th, 1853, the Rev. T. Sandford Doublittle, D. D., L.L. D., vice-president Rutgers

Sandorn bottles.

Punetal from the Second Reformed Church at Now-Brunswick Friday, April 21st, at 2:30 p. m.
Trains leave New-York from foot of Cortlandt and Desbrosces sto, at 1 p. m.
GRAY—Suddenly, on April 18th, 1893, William H. Gray-Funeral services at his late residence, 210 West 72d-st., on Friday morning, 21st inst., at 10 o'clock.

HOW—At Mendham, N. J., Monday evening, April 17th, Charles How, youngest son of Celestine Wells and the late James How, of Brooklyn, N.
Funeral services at the First Prestyterian Church, Henryst., Brooklyn Heights, on Filday, April 21st, at 2:30 p. m.

p. m.
LEFFERTS-Suddenly, on Tuesday, April 18, 1893, John LeTerts, in the O7th year of his age.
Priords are invited to attend the funeral services at the Reformed Dutch Church, Flatbush, L. I. Friday afternoon, the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock.
Kindly omit flowers.

Kindly omit flowers.

LUDINGTON—On Tuesday morning. April 18th, 1893, of pneumonia, Jenuic Cecella, wife of Peter D. Ludington, and daughter of the late Jacob H. Miller.

Funeral private at the residence of her sister, Mrs. L. E. Preston. No. 209 2d-ave.

LUDLOW—Suddenly, on Monday, April 17th, at her late residence. 59 Hawthorne-ave., Yonkers, N. Y., Mary K. Ludlow, wildow of Edward G. Ludlow, M. D., in the Sith year of her age.

Relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the function of the properties of St. John's Church, Yonkers, on Thur-day afternoon, April 20th, at 345 p. m. Carriages will meet the 2:55 p. m. train from Grand Central Depot.

Carriages with meet the 2.55 p. m. train from Graed Central Depot.

PACKARD-At Plainfield, N. J., Wednesday, April 19th, 1893, Mrs. Hester A. Puckard, eldest daughter of the late James Brooks in hier 74th year.

Puneral services will be held at her late residence, 18 Greve-st. Plainfield, N. J., on Friday, April 21st, at 3 p. m. Interment Saturday in the family plot in Greenwood.

PRAY-On Tue-day, April 18th, at 60 Richmond-st., Brooklyn, N. Y. of mailgoant searler fever, Bertha A., daughter of the Rey, W. T. and Adelia M. Pray, aged 12 years.

Funeral private.

Interment at Gless Falls, N. Y., Thursday morning.

VAN VIET: "PURGH-Suddenly at Poughkeensie, on Tue-sday, April 18th, 1893, of apoptexy, Mary Elizabeth Van Viedenburgh.

Van Viedenburgh.
Funoral services at St. Paul's Church, Poughkeepsle, this Cfburslay's afternoon at 2 o'clock.
VOORHEES-On Wednesday morring April 19th, at her residence, No. 144 Mardongalest, Mrs. Mary Bildwin Voornees.
Funoral services on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.
Friends and relatives are invited to attend.
Internent in Grienwood Cemetery.

Kensico Cemetery, on the Harlem Railroad, 48 minutes from the Grand Central Depot. New Depot at entrance. Office 16 East 42d-st.

Special Notices.

A.-By the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms, 238 Fifth Avenue. WM. B. NORMAN, Auctioneer. WATER-COLOR PAINTINGS

BY ABBOTT GRAVES AND MELEOURNE H. HARDWICK, OF BOSTON.
To be sold by auction
THIS THURSDAY EVENING,

Mont-Rouge Vineyards, Livermore Valley, California, produce highest types times in America, Received Gold Medal, highest award, Paris Exposition, 1889. For sale only in cases, Families supplied from theyards of the State of California, on every bottle, Send orders to J. A. Browder & Co., 311 East 9th-34., New-York City, Eastern agents.

A Joint Debato OVER THE UNLIMITED FREE COINAGE

OF SILVER ts now taking place in The Weekly Tellane, between WILLIAM M. STEWART, United States Senator from WILLIAM M. STEWART, United States Senator from Nevaria, backed by the best silver authorities, in favor of Prec Colnage, and Hon. Roswell G. Horr, backed by Re-publican authorities, against it. This is a strong and intensely interesting debate. The Weekly Tribune, 31 a year. Single copies,

The Weekly Tribune, $1 a year. Single copies, wrapped for nading, 3 cepts.

THE TRIBUNE, New-York.

Postoffice Notice.

wish for their success. Mr. Mctullough then distributes the claborately engrosed diplomas, and in closing spoke in praise of the physicians in the Board of Managers, and of those in charge of the institution, especially of Mrs. Willard, the superintendent.

The training school was founded by D. O. Mills, and its handsome new toulding was opened for the reception of students on December 17, 1885. It has graduated fitty seven trained nurses. Those who received their diplomas had night were Charles Nash, C. M. Hulett, Frank B. Kingslev, Max Rothschild, George B. Holmes, J. A. McCollom and W. J. Hain, all of this city; P. G. M. Hofman and P. F. Schubert, of Germany; A. E. Scholledt, Nova Scotia; F. A. Rennie, Canada; William Sabine and Arthur Downs, England; John Duty, Ireland; P. F. Jensen, Denmark; William F. Sweet, C. B. Whittlesey and N. F. Brackt.

WOMEN RECEIVED AT THE CATHOLIC CLUB.
The regular mouthly reception for women at the Catholle Club was held last night. From 8 to 10 o'clock the maily present enjoyed the concert. After that the rest of the time was spent in dancing. Archibbleop Corrigan at tended the concert. After that the rest of the time was spent in dancing. Archibbleop Corrigan at tended the concert. Late in the evening a letter was precived from the Diane of Veragua, in which he expressed his regret at not being able to attend the reception, and thanked the members of the club when he returned from his trap to the West.

**KILLED BY AN ELECTRIC CURRENT**.

Denver, C.G., April 19.—D. Reithman, a brother of John J. Reithman, president of the German National Bank; came in contact with an electric wire while shovelling snow from the roof of one of his buildings this morning and was instantly killed. Reithman was one of the richest men in the city.

**THE MAGAZINE GUN TESTING AT SPRINGFIELD.**

**THE MAGAZINE GUN TESTING AT SPRINGFIELD.**

Beligions Notices.

Springfield, Mass., April 19 - When the Magazine A. A. A. A. A. "COLUMBIAN SERVICE" next Sunday afternoon, 4 o'clock, Union Square Theatre, Rev. C. H. VATMAN, leader, Metopolitan Meetings. become Producial Son serinol at might. Gun Board met agalt, yesterday afternoon a message was received from the secretary of War ordering that the time during which gans may be re-